Waupun Firefighters Finish First

Congratulations to Waupun Firefighters Nate Rens and Eric TerBeest (pictured at right) for beating 14 of the best teams in the area to take home the first place trophy at the Alto Fair water fights on Thursday, August 7th.

Parade-goers also saw the Firefighters and their apparatus out and about in the community as they took part in the Alto parade and both Truck-N-Show parades.

MAYOR KYLE WELCOMES JAPANESE EXCHANGE STUDENT

Mayor Kyle Clark met with 13-year-old Kaito SHIN from Japan, a foreign exchange student through the International 4-H program. Kaito presented Mayor Kyle with a letter from ISHIMORI Takayuki, the Mayor of Hachioji, Japan. Kaito is staying with the Jesse and Carol Van Loo family of Waupun to experience American culture and lifestyle, and to practice the English language. Kaito wrote a special story which he also read to the Mayor. (Pictured below.) Born in California,

MAYOR KYLE WELCOMES JAPANESE EXCHANGE STUDENT (Continued)

Kaito (known by his English name, John-Kyte-Shin), moved with his Professor father to Japan when he was four. During the past two weeks, Kaito has been to a Timber Rattlers game, went overnight camping with the Boy Scouts, spent a day at the Wisconsin State Fair, Alto Fair, and Wisconsin Dells. His favorite sport is soccer and he has attended many games in the area with his host family, members of the Weeping Willow 4-H Club.

2014 WAUPUN TRUCK N SHOW

Below Mayor Kyle presents a 25th Anniversary plaque to Truck N Show President Ron Vande Zande, on behalf of the City. Every year Truck N

Show generously donates thousands of dollars to both Make A Wish and Special Olympics. This year Mayor Kyle was honored to follow their acts of generosity by contributing a portion of his Mayor's salary to help support these very worthy causes.

This 2013 Peterbilt 389 Glider named "Blood, Sweat, 'N' Gass" was awarded Mayor's Choice for Best of Show.

Annual Service of Norske Evangelical-Lutherske Kirke

Still stately is this little old Norwegian Lutheran Church near the corner of Church Road and Oak Center Road East of Waupun. The annual service will be held on Sunday, August 24 at 2pm. "All interested people are most welcome," said Keith Wojahn of rural Waupun, who serves as the Chairman of this Norwegian Church Cemetery Association. Rev. JD McCarty, Pastor of the United Methodist Church in Waupun, will be the guest minister with message, hymns, scriptures, and possible sharing by those attending. The traditional fellowship time will follow. This church building is 159 years old and was built of stone. The back portion was used as an early community school. The sanctuary was re-decorated last summer.

Special Entertainment at Waupun UMC

Special entertainment was presented at the Waupun United Methodist Church on Sunday, August 3rd, when Shirley Jansma, the church secretary, joined her husband Norm for some special music. Norm, who has sang solo at many services at various times, also joined his daughter Cara Aylesworth at the piano, for additional musical selections.

NEWS RELEASE

Tina Kohlman
Dairy and Livestock Agent
UW-Extension, Fond du Lac County

August 14, 2014

Two Fond du Lac County Youth Receive Dairy Leadership Award

Andrew Greenfield of Waupun and Kati Kindschuh of Brownsville, are two of three recipients to be awarded the 2014 James W. Crowley Dairy Leadership Award. These youth selected out of a pool of 20 candidates for their outstanding dairy project work and leadership. Both Greenfield and Kindschuh received a $500 scholarship at the 2014 Wisconsin State Fair Jr. Dairy Show.

Greenfield is the 18 year old son of Loren & Gill Greenfield of Waupun. He is an 11 year member of Alto All-Stars 4-H Club and active member of the Fond du Lac County Jr. Holsteins. Greenfield will be a freshman this fall at the University of Wisconsin – Madison studying dairy science. Kindschuh is the 18 year old daughter of David & Diane Kindschuh of Brownsville. Kindschuh is a long-time member of South Byron 4-H and Lomira FFA. She is currently serving on the Wisconsin FFA State Office Team with plans on attending UW-Platteville to study agriculture journalism.

The Wisconsin State Fair Jr. Dairy Show is the largest youth dairy show in the nation. In 2014, nearly 670 youth exhibitors ages 12-19 exhibited over 980 head of dairy cattle.
